India - an emerging market for Organic Cotton

Following the overwhelming response of the last edition of the show held in Kochi, NuernbergMesse India jointly with ICCOA (International Competence Centre for Organic Agriculture) announces the 8th edition of BIOFACH INDIA together with INDIA ORGANIC 2016 scheduled to take place from November 10 - 12, 2016 in NSIC Exhibition Ground, Okhla, New Delhi, India. India is currently the leader as the largest organic cotton producer among all organic cotton producing countries. "Leading global brands and private labels are increasing their emphasis on eco-friendly textiles, including organic cotton products, and India needs to make the best of this opportunity". Developing concern for protecting ecology and preventing global warming, especially in the western countries, is boosting the demand for organic and eco-friendly products across all categories. All previous editions of the event have witnessed participation from leading names in organic textile sector such as Armstrong Spinning Mills, Arvind Limited, Jharkhand Silk Textiles & Handicrafts Development Corporation Ltd., Sulochana Spinning Mills, Down to Earth, Suminter India Organics Pvt. Ltd, Paramount Textiles, Teksyard International(Ishta), Balavigna Weaving Mills P Ltd., Organic Weave Ltd., Ama Herbals, Anandi Enterprises and many more.

Book your space today!

Keeping the bright future of the Indian Organic Textile Industry in mind, we will have a "Textile Pavilion" once again as one of the highlights at the show with the exhibiting companies showcasing their organic textiles to the visitors and buyers. We are pleased to announce that GOTS (Global Organic Textile Standard), which is recognized as the world's leading processing standard for textiles made from organic fibres are one of the supporters of our event and will be present at the show once again this year. It defines high-level environmental criteria along the entire organic textiles supply chain and requires compliance with social criteria as well. Use BIOFACH INDIA together with INDIA ORGANIC as your organic platform to be present with your products and gain maximum advantage. Present your products to an emerging market well aware of the benefits of using organic textiles and benefit from excellent market prospects. The world's leading trade show network for organic products offers in India a high quality stage for communication, education and last but not least business.
